Re: Basketball Clinic, (April 27-28, 2012) and IBCA Corporate Sponsorship

Enclosed you will find information about reserving a table or tables to display your products at our annual clinic on April 27-28. Once again the clinic will be held at Lawrence North High School on the Northeastside of Indianapolis.

If you would like to reserve a table, please complete the enclosed information and return ASAP.

Also enclosed is information regarding various levels of corporate sponsorship related to advertising on the IBCA web site www.ibcacoaches.com. We would be happy to discuss with you our corporate sponsorship options.

Sincerely,

Steve Witty
Executive Director
Indiana Basketball Coaches Association

Indiana Basketball Coaches Association statement of purpose:

- 1) To develop better communication as well as better unity and fellowship among all member coaches.
- 2) To foster a closer working relationship with the Indiana High School Athletic Association and other state and national organizations.
- 3) To promote higher standards of professional growth, proficiency and ethics among member coaches so that the needs of our student-athletes will be best served.

The Indiana Basketball Coaches Association was formed in 1970. Over the past 42 years, the IBCA has grown into one of the largest and most respected high school basketball coaches' associations in the nation.
